The News.

There has been but little interesting news from our armies during the past week. The enemy have succeeded in crossing the river at a point below Chattanooga. They have engaged in a desperate effort to get possesion of Lookout Mountain. The Telegrams state that active operations are on foot in Lookout valley, and that there was heavy fighting on Wednesday Thursday and Friday of last week. Stiring news from that quarter is expected daily.

At Charleston the yankees have kept up a terrible fire upon Fort Sumpter — The bombardment continued at last accounts and the old fort holding out manfully against all the power and skill of the enemy.

No Public Meeting on Monday.

For some reason we know not what, our citizens failed to meet at the Court House on Monday last, pursuant to adjournment. We had no opportunity therefore to hear the reports of the different Beat Committees and to know who had and who had not subscribed to aid in supplying the soldiers families.

We have been enabled to obtain from the Hon. Wm. H. Thornton, our Probate Judge the following synopsis of his report prepared for the public meeting.

It will be remembered that the corn subscribed was to be furnished at 50 cts per bushel. The wheat $2,00. The salt at $20 per sack. Many however preferred to donate what they intended to furnish rather than subscribe it at the price.

The following is the amount furnished by the different precincts.

There are 976 families of soldiers reported as needing assistance. These families number 3645 persons, some of these families are supplied with corn but need salt.

Of the cash Judge Thornton sent off $6550 to be invested in salt.

We learn that Judge Wade Keyes, the late acting assistant Attorney General of the Confederate States, has been appointed Attorney General ad interim, the Hon. Thos. H. Watts having resigned.

THE CURE OF AN EVIL TONGUE.—It must be done at the heart. The weights and wheels are there, and the clock strikes according to their motion. A guileful heart makes a guileful tongue and lips. It is the work house where is the forge of deceits and slanders; and the tongue is only the outer shop where they are vended, and the lips the door of it — Such ware as is made within, such, and no other, can come out.—Leighton.
